INSPIRATIONAL YOUTH! YOU ARE NEVER TOO YOUNG TO INSPIRE!

Most kids break open their piggy banks to buy games or toys, but 5-year-old Sunshine Oelfke found a more important way to use her savings. She started gathering up her own change after learning that a friend at school didn't have enough money to buy milk. Sunshine's mom, Jackie Oelfke, helped her fill a baggie with cash and take it to school, but they didn't stop there. They decided to extend Sunshine's good deed with a GoFundMe campaign that raised money for more kids who can't afford milk. "I want all my friends to have milk and lunch," Sunshine says. "I want all my friends to be happy."
